The majority of the farmers have there maple bushes tapped but report a poor run. A great number think that the season will be poor as it is so late.

A very pretty scene was witnessed in the Lutheran church on Wednesday last when Mr. Albert Stein and Miss Louisa Chatson were united in wedlock by the Pastor, Rev. F. Schneider. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Mary Chatson, and Mr. Emil Stein, cousin of the groom, assisted the groom. The bride was attired in blue grey cloth trimmed with white silk lace and ribbon. The bridesmaid was dressed in a similar costume. After the ceremony they drove to the residence of the bride's father and took tea, only the intimate friends being present.

Our village Doctor has left us for a term of two months during which he will visit the hospital in Kingston or New York. Mr. Fadden will be much missed and we hope for his safe return.

Mr. Fred Loyst our former stage driver is again in our midst spending a week at Mr. Wm. Lane's. He called on the village folks Thursday last and looks hale and hearty.

Mr. Wm. Blakely who suffered with "la Grippe" this winter is now in Kingston Hospital getting treatment for his eyes; when he left home he was completely blind of one eye it being affected by "la Grippe." He is being well attended and we hope he will be home shortly with his light fully restored.

Rev. R. A. Whattam left on Wednesday last for Stirling where he will write on his exams. We wish him success.
